

K-Love is station that has met a listen audience need for many years in our community. However for many years we did not have this type of station in our area until it was available to us via translator. K-Love keeps me in touch with current world events as well as the the current news amoung the christain community. Because K-Love is national broadcast because of translators I can keep in listening range to most cities I travel to.